

Press Release for Immediate Release:

February 4, 2016

*Contact: Kelly Tryba, Hope House of Colorado
kelly@hopehouseofcolorado.org or 720-629-3857*

Brew & Stew: Unlimited Local Brews on Tap, Fab Food & DJ KAAOS
Support the teen mom self-sufficiency programs at Hope House of Colorado

Always a fun night, the 3rd Annual Brew & Stew features beer from local breweries, great food and KAAOS, a local DJ who knows how to bring the party. There will also be corn hole games, a prize wheel, picture booth, a raffle, and more.

Scheduled for Saturday, March 5, from 5 - 10 p.m., ticket price covers unlimited local beer and delicious soups and stews as well as desserts.

“This event is a blast for HHYP, our own young professionals group,” said Sara Littlejohn, a Development Officer for Hope House. “It’s a fun way for people in their 20’s and 30s to give back while having a great time.”

This year's Brew & Stew will be held at Mile High Station, located at 2027 West Lower Colfax Avenue, Denver.

Hope House is metro-Denver's only resource providing free self-sufficiency programs to parenting teen moms, including Residential, GED, and College & Career Support programs. Tickets are limited. For details or to purchase tickets, go to hopehouseofcolorado.org.

Photos from last year’s event and event logo attached.

About Hope House of Colorado: Hope House is metro-Denver's only resource providing free self-sufficiency programs to parenting teen moms, including Residential, GED, and College & Career Support programs. Additional supportive services include Healthy Relationships and Parenting Programs, Mentoring, Early Learning, Life Skills workshops and certified counseling, all designed to prepare them for long-term independence. Hope House relies on numerous volunteers and local business partnerships to accomplish its mission. Hopehouseofcolorado.org

Contact: Kelly Tryba, Hope House of Colorado
kelly@hopehouseofcolorado.org or 720-629-3857

Arvada Press version

Press Release for Immediate Release:

February 4, 2016

*Contact: Kelly Tryba, Hope House of Colorado
kelly@hopehouseofcolorado.org or 720-629-3857*

Brew & Stew: Unlimited Local Brews on Tap, Fab Food & DJ KAAOS
Support the teen mom self-sufficiency programs at Hope House of Colorado in Arvada

Always a fun night, the 3rd Annual Brew & Stew features beer from local breweries, great food and KAAOS, a local DJ who knows how to bring the party. There will also be corn hole games, a prize wheel, picture booth, a raffle, and more.

Scheduled for Saturday, March 5, from 5 - 10 p.m., ticket price covers unlimited local beer and delicious soups and stews as well as desserts.

“Our Arvada supporters love this event,” said Lisa Steven, Founder & Executive Director of Hope House. “It’s a fun way to give back while also showing our teen moms that their community believes in the bright future they are building for themselves and their children.”

This year's Brew & Stew will be held at Mile High Station, located at 2027 West Lower Colfax Avenue, Denver.

Hope House is metro-Denver's only resource providing free self-sufficiency programs to parenting teen moms, including Residential, GED, and College & Career Support programs. Tickets are limited. For details or to purchase tickets, go to hopehouseofcolorado.org.

Photos from last year's event and event logo attached.

About Hope House of Colorado: Hope House is metro-Denver's only resource providing free self-sufficiency programs to parenting teen moms, including Residential, GED, and College & Career Support programs. Additional supportive services include Healthy Relationships and Parenting Programs, Mentoring, Early Learning, Life Skills workshops and certified counseling, all designed to prepare them for long-term independence. Hope House relies on numerous volunteers and local business partnerships to accomplish its mission. Hopehouseofcolorado.org

Contact: Kelly Tryba, Hope House of Colorado
kelly@hopehouseofcolorado.org or 720-629-3857